Amzak announces investment in Celtic Capital

Amzak Capital Management is pleased to announce that it has agreed to make a Subordinated Debt investment in Celtic Capital Corporation. The terms of the transaction are private.

Celtic provides Asset Based Financing (ABF) to non retail businesses in the Western United States that find it challenging to get traditional bank loans. Celtic's credits range from $500,000 to $5 million and are used for the various business needs such as working capital, sales growth, debt restructuring, DIP financing, turnarounds, among others and within various industries. Celtic success has been based on its specialized knowledge and quick response time to provide its clients with effective and rapid funding, allowing them to become one of the most respected ABF lender in the industry. Celtic's headquarter is in Santa Monica, California.

Amzak Capital Management is the investment vehicle for the Kazma family. Amzak makes business development, debt and equity investments in a range of industries domestically and internationally. The group considers investments from a control perspective as well as minority investments across the capital structure, and has a particularly strong track record in the media and telecommunications sectors. Amzak is headquartered in Boca Raton, FL.
